PRESS RELEASE

Burckhardt+Partner AG: New management for the Berlin site

Carsten Krafft is set to become the new managing director of the Burckhardt+Partner AG Berlin site. The 48-year-old, who in his last position was a member of the extended executive team of Hascher Jehle Architektur, will be taking over the reins from Reiner Becker as of 1 August 2020. Mr Becker sold his office to Burckhardt+Partner three and a half years ago.

Carsten Krafft studied architecture at Brandenburg University of Technology Cottbus, and has worked for different offices both in Germany and abroad as well as acquiring experience in teaching. In his last position he was a member of the extended executive team of Hascher Jehle Architektur in Berlin.

“In times of change and challenges, Burckhardt+Partner are gaining in Carsten Krafft a successful figure with many years of experience and the required agility and visionary perspective on the future,” says Wolfgang Hardt, member of the company management at Burckhardt+Partner. As of 1 August 2020, Carsten Krafft will be taking over the management of the Berlin site from Reiner Becker, who is leaving the office.

The board of directors and the company management thank Reiner Becker for his valuable work in setting up and progressively strengthening the Berlin site. Reiner Becker successfully integrated the renowned office Reiner Becker Architekten BDA, with its special focus on scientific, research and university construction, into the Burckhardt+Partner Group and continuously expanded its portfolio of services. Under his management, B+P Reiner Becker GmbH has grown continuously over the last three and a half years by tapping into new areas of business and acquiring new customers.

The positive developments seen over the last few years prompted the office's relocation to new offices this May, where the site's 35 employees will be carrying out exciting work under the management of Carsten Krafft.

In addition to the three German sites in Berlin, Grenzach and Stuttgart, the Burckhardt+Partner Group boasts another five sites in Switzerland. Since the merging of the German subsidiaries Burckhardt+Partner GmbH and B+P Reiner Becker GmbH into Burckhardt+Partner GmbH as of 1 June 2020, the international company will now also position itself on the German market with a consistent name.
